

The power of just one person to control so many media outlets is exactly what I feared when I heard of all the consolidations. The decision Sinclair has made to air this "documentary" is not in the public interest. This should be a paid message or equal time should be given to the opposition. Outlets should not be forced to show or not to show individual programs. This is NOT in the public interest and does not auger well for the future.